

A scenic mountain landscape under a blue sky with white clouds. A cable car is suspended in the air, moving from the top left towards the center. In the foreground, a young boy with dark hair, wearing a grey zip-up hoodie, stands with his arms crossed, smiling at the camera. To his right is a large, leafy green tree. In the background, a valley is visible with a small village, green fields, and a blue bus. A brown and white cow stands in the grassy foreground on the left. The name 'Xavier' is written in large, bold, black letters on the right side of the image.
